

Communication Studies Day Growth Opportunity

Communication Studies Day—Panels

Space is limited—arrive early (TV Studio—LH)

You will need to submit a 1 to 2 page letter (addressed to me, using resume header) that discusses what you learned with regards to your future. This essay must contain at a minimum:

- ⇒ All panelists' names
- ⇒ Three (3) things learned from their comments and the question/answer session
- ⇒ How their comments opened your eyes to a new career field, or made you think twice about your plans
- ⇒ Incorporate at least one theory/concept from your major into your letter. Include at a minimum:
 - ⇒ Include theory/concept name
 - ⇒ Definition
 - ⇒ Application
- ⇒ Attach program distributed at the event to the back of your letter

Watch your campus email for additional information on panelists, times, and other events occurring on Communication Studies Day.

Hardcopy of letter due no later than noon on April 8th.

10 points max extra credit (graded pass/fail—must earn a “B” or better to earn the 10 pts)

Communication Studies Day Growth Opportunity

Communication Studies Day—Fashion Show

Warwick Center Ballroom

12:15–1:15

Complete Door Prize Entry Form—Great Prizes Available

Attend the ENTIRE Communication Studies Fashion Show.

You will need to submit a 1 to 2 page letter (addressed to me, using resume header) that provides the following information:

- ⇒ Three pearls of information you learned (fashion tips/things never thought of before/that item that surprised you).
- ⇒ How you can apply this information to your next step, or in your search for your next step.
- ⇒ Incorporate at least one theory/concept from your major into your letter. Include at a minimum:
 - ⇒ Include theory/concept name
 - ⇒ Definition
 - ⇒ Application
- ⇒ Attach program distributed at the event to the back of your letter.

Hardcopy of letter due no later than noon on April 8th.

10 points extra credit