

Substantives:

Hic, Ille, Iste, Is, Idem, aliquis, quidam, qui, quis

For the following sentences, put in the correct form of the words above. Do NOT use “vir” or “femina” etc. because we are using these demonstratives as substantives, i.e. in place of a noun.

Nominative:

1. This guy is annoying. _____ molestus est.
2. That guy is annoying. _____ molestus est.
3. That (ughh) guy is annoying. _____ molestus est.
4. Some guy came to my house yesterday. _____ ad casam meam heri venit.
5. A certain guy came to my house yesterday. _____ ad casam meam heri venit.
6. The same guy came to my house yesterday. _____ ad casam meam heri venit.
7. Marcus is the guy who came to my house yesterday. Est Marcus _____ ad casam meam heri venit.
8. Who came to your house yesterday? _____ ad casam meam heri venit.

Accusative:

1. I told my dog, “attack this guy!” cani meo dixi, _____ oppugna!
2. I told my dog, “attack that guy!” cani meo dixi, _____ oppugna!
3. I told my dog, “attack that (ugh) guy!” cani meo dixi, _____ oppugna!

4. He told his dog, “attack the same guy!” cani suo dixit,
“_____ oppugna!”
5. I told my dog, “attack some guy!” cani meo dixi, “_____”
oppugna!”
6. My mother asked, “which guy did your dog attack?” mater me rogavit, _____ canis tuus oppugnavit?
7. I said, “Marcus is the guy whom my dog attacked.” dixi, “Est Marcus _____ canis meus oppugnavit.”

Genitive

1. This woman's house is really small. Casa _____ minima
est.
2. That woman's house is really beautiful. casa _____ pulcherrima est.
3. That (ugh) woman's house is dirty. casa _____ sordida
est.
4. That same woman's flowers are beautiful. flores
_____ sunt pulchra.
5. Somebody's house is really dirty. casa _____ est sordidior.
6. A certain woman's house is the dirtier than the others. casa _____ sordidior est quam alia.
7. Whose house is dirtiest? _____ casa sordidissima est?
8. It's Julia whose house is dirtiest. Est Iulia _____ casa sordidissima est.