

Homework Due Wednesday, April 18
Forming Infinitives:

For each of the following verbs, give the five infinitives, then translate the sentences that use these forms. The sentence models are from the Laocoon story.

1. terreō, -ēre, terruī, territum to terrify

| Present Active | Present Passive |
|-----------------------|------------------------|
|                       |                        |
| Perfect Active | Perfect Passive |
|                       |                        |
| Future Active  |                        |
|                       |                        |

1. Aenēās dīcit serpentēs magnōs Trōiānōs terrēre.
2. Aenēās negat Trōiānōs serpentibus magnīs territōs esse.
3. Virgilius nārrat omnēs Trōiānōs signum deōrum cognovisse.

2. fugiō, -ere, fūgī, fūgitum to flee

| Present Active | Present Passive |
|-----------------------|------------------------|
|                       |                        |
| Perfect Active | Perfect Passive |
|                       |                        |
| Future Active  |                        |
|                       |                        |

4. Cassandra nōbīs dīcit fēminās Trōiānās ē casīs fugitūrās esse.
5. Aenēās vidit fēminās Trōiānās per viās urbis fugere.

6. Aenēās scit omnēs cīvēs Trōiānōs ad litus fugisse.

3. deleō, -ēre, dēlēvī, dēlētum to destroy

| Present Active | Present Passive |
|-----------------------|------------------------|
|                       |                        |
| Perfect Active | Perfect Passive |
|                       |                        |
| Future Active  |                        |
|                       |                        |

7. Aenēās vidit virōs Trōiānōs mīlitibus Graecīs dēlēri.

8. Aenēās nunc scit dona Graecōrum cīvitatē suam dēlētūra sunt.

9. Virgilius scrībit filiōs Lāocoontis fātō malō dēlētōs esse.

10. Virgilius scrībit serpentēs filiōs Lāocoontis dēlēvisse.