

Latin 102: Reading Ablatives

Homework Due 1/27/12

For each of the following sentences (a) underline the ablative(s) and (b) translate the sentence. (Note: some of the verbs are imperfect or future (*), so use the correct tense in translating these. Consult the Wheelock appendix or the online review materials for imperfect/future review.)

I. How, with what, by what means:

cīvēs Rōmānī urbem iūre ratiōneque tenēbant*. _____

Caesar cīvitatē vī timoreque mutābat*. _____

dux signum militibus (dative: “to the soldiers”) gladiō dat. _____

Catīlīna virōs pessimōs pecūniā in insidiās suās trahit. _____

māter filiās sententiīs bonīs alit. _____

II. Manner

vir fēminaque cum amōre sē in matrimōnium iungunt. _____

pater meus semper cum virtūte labōrēs faciēbat*. _____

magistra nostra cum sapientiā nōs docet. _____

III. Time when or time within which illō tempore cīvēs nōn erant* fortunātī. _____

sex hōrīs māter cēnam parābit*. _____

eōdem diē veniēmus*. _____
