

PLS 304 – Introduction to Public Policy Analysis

Evaluation Form for the Final Paper/Project

Name(s): _____

Item	Excellent						Poor		NA
	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C
Professionalism of the final paper (e.g., style, appearance, etc.)
Grammar and spelling
Organization of the final paper (e.g., easy to follow and find key information)
Ability to link classroom education with real world problems
Demonstrates critical thinking skills
Demonstrates problem solving skills
Demonstrates scholarly research
Demonstrates applied research
Demonstrates effective communication of information to the reader
Persuasiveness of the conclusions and recommendations
Demonstrates a mastery of the subject matter at the conclusion of the paper
Final paper provides a distinguishing element of your professional portfolio
Overall evaluation the quality of the final paper

Additional Comments and Explanation for Ratings: