UBEDA OVERVIEW

Located in Andalucía, (southern Spain) Ubeda has been declared a World Historic site by Unesco. It is an absolutely CHARMING, beautiful small city with lots of attractions and things to do.

Ubeda sits on a ridge overlooking the olive groves of the Guadalquivir valley and is a wonderfully pure example of a renaissance town. Some of the best architecture from the 16th Spain can be found here.

It is located close to other renown cities and historical attractions such as Granada, Seville, Cádiz and Valencia, among others.

Ubeda has hosted 3 other wonderful UNCW summer programs in the past.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Your wonderful adventure begins right here on campus with a 2 day orientation. We will talk about the do's and don'ts of the culture in order to help you maximize your experience. We will talk about the places we are going to visit and the courses you are going to take.

Our next stop will be SAFA, our host school. It is located right in the heart of Ubeda and it is a wonderful example of 16th century architecture. We will have class Monday through Thursday from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm. Followed by afternoon excursions to local museums and attractions. You will definitely see everything there is to see. On weekends we will take trips to other cities such as Granada, Seville and Baeza.

ABOUT THE COURSES:

SPN 202: Continue to build your vocabulary and grammar. Put into practice everything you learned before plus new stuff. It will be exciting!

SPN 206: Develop your listening skills and really explore the culture of both Spain and Latin America through film and television. Have you ever sat through a class where all you do is watch T.V? Yes, you may become a couch potato as long as you participate in the discussions and turn in your assignments. It is fun !

PREREQUISITES: To be eligible for this program, students must have passed SPN 201, have a minimum 2.0 GPA as of the end of Spring 07 and must not be on behavioral probation. In addition, permission from Program Director is required.
