

UBEDA, SPAIN

SUMMER 2009

Program Overview

This program is designed to give you, the student, the opportunity to fully immerse yourself in the Spanish Culture by giving you the wonderful opportunity of living with a host family. Students visit some of the world's most beautiful and famous cities and sites and engage in daily cultural activities that provide a deep understanding of Spanish life and culture. In addition, students have the incredible opportunity of improving their Spanish skills greatly by taking two very interactive courses and by sharing with local conversation partners in and outside the classroom. This program is the perfect program for a student who wants to think outside the box and experience new adventures. It will get your adrenaline going so get ready for an exciting ride that will open the door to a life-changing experience.

Academics

Students participating in this program take a two course combo that earns them 6 credit hours. The courses are highly interactive and geared towards building extra confidence to become more fluent in Spanish.

SPN 202 (Intermediate Spanish II) (3 credits) Prerequisite, SPN 201 (Intermediate Spanish I) or equivalent course, or proper placement into 202. In this course students review all grammar studied previously and continue to build their vocabulary.

SPN 206 (Spanish in the Media) (3 credits). Provides a wonderful opportunity to develop the student listening skills and explore Spanish culture through film and television. It is fun!

“Regardless of your major, going abroad is for anyone and everyone.”

Ubeda

Located in Andalusia, (Southern Spain), Ubeda has been declared a World Historic site by Unesco. It is an absolutely charming small and safe city with lots of culture, attractions, restaurants, historical sites and things to do. The landscape is very unique, surrounded by millions of olive trees. Ubeda is also a renaissance town with many examples of 16th century architecture to remind us of that glorious period of time.
