

Orff-Schulwerk Course, Level I
July 11 – 22, 2011
Chapel Hill, North Carolina

The Orff-Schulwerk Teacher Education Course is a two-week intensive program focused on music and movement education. This interactive and hands-on course is designed for anyone with the ability to read music and an interest in teaching children. Daily instruction (Monday through Friday) includes music-making and movement activities based on pentatonic materials, ostinati, simple bordun accompaniments, elemental forms, and special topics. Key elements of this child-centered approach are:

*Speech • Singing • Creative Movement • Improvising •
Playing Classroom Instruments and Recorder*

Level I Orff Certification documenting sixty (60) contact hours (from 8 AM to 4 PM daily), redeemable for six (6) NC Teacher Renewal Credits, will be awarded upon successful completion. A portion of the total contact hours will be designated specifically as reading credit. This course is co-sponsored by the UNC-CH Department of Music and the Cape Fear Orff Association, and approved by the American Orff-Schulwerk Association (AOSA).

Registration is $425, plus required textbooks if postmarked by April 15, 2011; May 30, 2011; $450 if postmarked after May 30, 2011. A partial payment of $200 will reserve a space in the course. Required texts cost approximately $60. Remember to bring your own soprano recorder and to wear comfortable clothing for movement. (Registration on second page).

Faculty: Dan Johnson, Basic Pedagogy and Movement Instructor (UNCW Professor)
Connie McKoy, Recorder (UNCG Professor)
Local Guest Artists, Special Topics

Benefits:

- Study one of the most effective pedagogical approaches with nationally recognized faculty
- Acquire a repertoire of singing games, songs, speech pieces, and movement activities
- Develop instrumental, vocal, recorder, and movement skills and teaching techniques

What People Are Saying:

“... an awesome way to teach children.”
“Every music teacher should take this course... such a great way to engage students.”
“[The course] was excellent—couldn’t be better!”
“Inspirational! ...worth every penny.”
“You just don’t know how much these two weeks will change EVERYTHING!”

For more information contact Dr. Johnson: at uncorff@gmail.com
910/962-7559, or visit <http://people.uncw.edu/johnsond/orffprogram.htm>

To register, send a check payable to the Cape Fear Orff Association:

Orff Program, c/o Dr. Johnson
UNCW Department of Music
601 S. College Road
Wilmington, NC 28403-5975

A partial payment of $200 will reserve a space in the course; full payment must be received by July 1, 2011. Enrollment is limited to 30 applicants. No refunds will be given after June 15, 2011; cancellations received prior to that date will receive a full refund less a $30 processing fee.

For additional information contact Dr. Johnson: johnsond@uncw.edu; 910/962-7559 Phone & 910/962-7106 Fax.

Summer Workshop Registration

Please Print Clearly

Name: _____

Home Address: _____

Work address: _____

Home phone: _____ Work Phone: _____

Email address: _____ T-Shirt size: S M LG XL

UNCW Department of Music
601 S. College Road
Wilmington, NC 28403-5975