

Application Exercise Group Assessment Form

Discuss how you functioned as a team and then circle the number that the group has decided best reflects how you performed as a group. If someone's perceptions differ from the group's find out why and discuss why you were successful in some areas and less successful in others. Learning to engage in this dialogue will help you immensely when you get in other class-related groups and in groups outside the classroom. If you are unclear what these questions mean, review the chapters on groups!
