

Learner Biography

Directions: For this assignment, you will chronicle your story as a learner.

By addressing each stage of your education (elementary school, middle school, high school, and college), you will describe who you were as a learner (behaviors, major activities in and out of school, and learning needs).

You will also identify one memorable teacher from each stage. Briefly describe each teacher's qualities (positive and not-so). Are there any particularities from these teachers that you plan to adopt for your own classroom?

Format: This is a narrative assignment. You might consider organizing it by grade level, positive and/or negative associations, teacher memories, or even learning needs.

Due: Friday, 9/1 Please post and bring a hard copy to class.

Rubric: 5 points total, 1 point for each area
