

Trip Itinerary
HST 270 The History of Tourism
Summer I and II, 2015

July 10, 2015: Leave ILM and arrive in ATL. Board Delta 176 for DUB

July 11, 2015: Arrive in Dublin at check in at Maldron Hotel. Visit Guinness Storehouse for tour and discussion. Use #HST270Tourism on Twitter to make observations and share photos. Evening free.

July 12, 2015: National Leprechaun Museum and Temple Bar. Use #HST270Tourism on Twitter to make observations and share photos. Evening free.

July 13, 2015: Kilmainham Gaol and Leinster House. Write a 2-page handwritten letter describing your visits to someone back home. Evening free.

July 14, 2015: Free day. Explore on your own.

July 15, 2015: Take van to Northern Ireland and check in at Carnside Guest House. Evening free.

July 16, 2015: Giant's Causeway Visitor's Center tours and discussion. Write a travel sketch describing the your time in Giant's Causeway with particular emphasis on the landscape. Evening free.

July 17, 2015: Giant's Causeway service project. Afternoon and evening free (van to Bushmills is available)

July 18, 2015: Glens of Antrim and Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge. Write a travel sketch describing the your time in the Glens of Antrim and the coast with particular emphasis on the landscape. Evening free.

July 19, 2015: Travel to Castle Bar. Check in at Breaffy Woods Hotel. Afternoon and evening free: rest to prepare for early pilgrimage.

July 20, 2015: Early morning pilgrimage on Croagh Patrick. Afternoon: return to Dublin and check in at Jurys Inn Christchurch. Record a 3-minute video of yourself telling fellow UNCW students about your experience of pilgrimage. Upload to course site. Evening free.

July 21, 2015: Depart Dublin at 8:40AM on DL 177.