

I. UN/Committee Structure

- a. UN Organization Chart
- b. UN Charter Section on My Committee
- c. Background on My Committee History (multiple sources: website, books, articles)

II. UPMUNC Information

- a. Rules of Procedure: Short
- b. Rules of Procedure: Long
- c. Delegate Code of Conduct
- d. Nations in Attendance

III. Resolution Writing

- a. Resolution Phrases (some given out in class, find more on the web)
- b. Sample Resolutions from UPMUNC
- c. Sample General Assembly and Security Council Resolutions (more than just those passed out in class; show me that you are reading these to learn on your own)

IV. Information on My UPMUNC Committee

- a. Background Guide

V. Country Information

- a. Basic Data Form
- b. Position Paper for the Conference
- c. Articles on Current News, Foreign Policy, and Trade Relations
- d. Scholarly Analysis (books, articles) of Country's Foreign Policy
- e. Speeches by Government Officials, Foreign Minister, President

VI. Research: Issue 1 on My Committee

- a. Articles on Issues and Your Country's Position on These Issues
- b. Articles on Other Countries' Positions on the Issues

VII. Research: Issue 2 on My Committee

- a. Articles on Issues and Your Country's Position on These Issues
- b. Articles on Other Countries' Positions on the Issues

VIII. Research: Issue 3 on My Committee

- a. Articles on Issues and Your Country's Position on These Issues
- b. Articles on Other Countries' Positions on the Issues

Remember: Readings should be highlighted in relevant sections to show that you have gone through them.