Use Lagrange multipliers to solve the problem below. Show all work including the system of equations that you solved. NEATLY write the solution below. 10 points. Due Tuesday 2/17. No late work will be accepted.

1) A cylindrical can is to be made that will hold $250 \pi$ cubic inches of candy. Find the dimensions of the can with minimum surface area.