I. Introduction

II. Political parties: institutions Americans love to hate
A. Praise from the Ivory Tower
B. Politics without parties

III. Three important party distinctions
A. How parties differ from other organizations
B. The components of American political parties
C. Does the Tripod Model work in the Information Age?
D. What do political parties seek to accomplish?
   1. Rational-efficient parties
   2. Responsible parties

IV. The battle of the titans: Hamilton versus Jefferson
A. Theoretical ends
   1. Individual liberty versus government guaranteed order
   2. Individual liberty versus government guaranteed equality
B. Practical interests
   1. Elites
   2. Masses
C. Political means
   1. National supremacy versus state’s rights and local control
   2. Hierarchical versus decentralized political-party structure
   3. Pragmatic goal of winning elections versus ideological commitment to principles

V. Like God, parties are not dead