How does the class work?
This is a three-credit class taking place partly on the UNCW campus and partly in Ireland. In the classroom, we'll study the history of tourism, focusing on Ireland as a case study. For the last 12 days of Summer II, we will be traveling in Ireland.

Where will we go?
We will spend time in three places in Ireland: Dublin, Northern Ireland, and County Mayo. A daily itinerary can be found at http://people.uncw.edu/stonegordont/Ireland2015.html.

How much does it cost?
The full price of the trip is $3977.06. This includes airfare, lodging, breakfasts, admission fees, ground transportation, and guide services. It does not include lunches and suppers, passport fees, tuition/fees and books.

How do I apply?
You will need to apply through the UNCW Office of International Programs. A link to the online application can be found at http://people.uncw.edu/stonegordont/Ireland2015.html.
