

Latin 101

Homework Due 11-9-09

Europa text exercises (38 Latin Stories, p. 24)

Part I: Phrases

Give the Latin for the following phrases. All are in the reading but you may need to leave out some words to get the specific phrase here: (The phrases are in order in the reading.)

1. overcome by his love: _____
2. but what will I do? : _____
3. If I overcome her by force: _____
4. if she discovers my treachery: _____
5. he ran quickly to earth: _____
6. a big bull came to them: _____
7. she held his neck with her arms: _____
8. no bad thoughts: _____
9. fame and glory will come to you: _____
10. poets will join your name with mine: _____

Part II: GNC Give the gender, number and case of the underlined words:

Europam, filiam Agēnoris, Iuppiter, rēx deōrum, vīdit. Victus amōre eius, dīxit, “Sine hāc bellā puellā ego nōn poterō vīvere. Sed quid agam? Haec virgō, sī eam vī superābō, mē nōn amābit, et lūnō, sī īnsidiās meās inveniet, mē castīgābit. Arte igitur Eurōpam ad mē dūcere dēbeō.

Word	Gender	Number	Case
filiam	m f n	s pl	nom. gen. dat. acc. abl.
deōrum	m f n	s pl	nom. gen. dat. acc. abl.
amōre	m f n	s pl	nom. gen. dat. acc. abl.
virgō	m f n	s pl	nom. gen. dat. acc. abl.
īnsidiās	m f n	s pl	nom. gen. dat. acc. abl.
Arte	m f n	s pl	nom. gen. dat. acc. abl.

Part III: Prepositional Phrases List the prepositional phrases (including any adjectives and genitives) in the paragraph above, and translate the phrase:

Iuppiter sibi dedit fōrmam taurī. Cum celeritāte ē suā arce in caelō per nūbēs ad terram cucurrit. Eurōpa cum suīs amīcīs errāvērāt in loca remota. Ad hās vēnit ille magnus taurus. Fūgērunt aliae puellae; sōla Europa (nam animalia smper amaverat) remānsit cum taurō. Collum eius suīs bracchiīs Eurōpa tenuit; sine morā trāns mare ille eam traxit.

Phrase	Meaning
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.
11.

Part IV: Verbs Give the tense and the translation of the underlined verbs:

Eurōpa perīculum sēnsit et exclāmāvit, “O!” Dixit Iuppiter, “Bella puella, nūllae malae sententiae sunt in meō animō. Nōn taurus, sed deus ego sum. Nōn mors, sed fāma glōriaque tibi venient, nam tuum nōmen magnī poētae cum meō iungent.”

Verb	Tense	Meaning
sēnsit
sunt
venient		