

Latin 101 Homework Due Aug. 31

I. Making sentences Use the chart below to construct six sentences that have a subject, direct object, and verb. Use each word only once! Make sure singular and plural forms agree. You get extra credit if you correctly use the “extra” words in your sentences.

Nominative	Accusative	Verbs
puella femina poeta agricola nautae puerī filiī	rosam fēminam poetās puerōs philosophiam agrum puellās	videt habet amat laudat monet servat terret
Extra: nōn, saepe, semper, hodiē, paucī, multās

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

II. Genitive Phrases Each of the phrases below shows possession through use of the genitive case. Translate the phrases, being careful about singulars and plurals.

pecūnia puellārum _____

fāmam poetae _____

fōrmā nautae _____

fortūna puerōrum _____

nautārum īram _____

puellārum rosās _____

puellae philosophia _____

antīquās sententiās poetārum _____

nautae poenam _____

fāma puerī _____