

Latin 101: Sample Quiz ANSWERS

I. Paradigms Give the paradigms of the nouns requested below.

fēmina, -ae f

case	singular	plural
nom.	fēmina	fēminae
gen.	fēminae	fēminārum
dat.	fēminae	fēminīs
acc.	fēminam	fēminās
abl.	fēminā	fēminīs

populus, -ī m

case	singular	plural
nom.	populus	populī
gen.	populī	populōrum
dat.	populō	populīs
acc.	populum	populōs
abl.	populō	populīs

II. Vocabulary Give the full Latin dictionary form of the English word below:

1. rumor, report, fame, reputation _____ fāma, -ae f _____
2. anger _____ īra, -ae f _____
3. gate, entrance _____ porta, -ae f _____
4. life _____ vīta, -ae f _____
5. feeling, thought, opinion _____ sententia, -ae f _____
6. boy _____ puer, puerī m * _____
7. punishment _____ poena, -ae f _____
8. man _____ vir, virī m * _____

Give the English meaning of the following Latin words:

1. hodiē _____ today _____
2. ager _____ field _____
3. sed _____ but _____
4. sine _____ without _____
5. habeō _____ to have _____
6. satiō _____ to satisfy _____

 for words like populus or numerus (ending in -us) you can just give -ī as the second part, but for words ending in -er (or vir) you have to write out the second form, so we know what happens to the -e in the stem.