

Expectations for Jan. 15-20:

Study expectations:

- ☐ go through the chapter 2 and 3 audio files (on the Wheelock site) at least three times (listening and repeating)
- ☐ do (or have done) each of the flash card sets posted on the Assignments page for Jan. 13-20 at least three times
- ☐ review the posted class notes at least once for each class
- ☐ study chapter materials enough to meet the learning expectations below

Learning expectations:

- ☐ In addition to maintaining the knowledge from the previous week,
- ☐ know chapter 1-2 vocabulary well, English to Latin and Latin to English, and be acquainted with chapter 3 vocabulary from listening once at the Textbook web site
- ☐ know dictionary forms of nouns and verbs through chapter 2
- ☐ know the first declension paradigm well enough to quickly be able to give any case required of any first declension word
- ☐ understand and be able to articulate the meanings of case, paradigm, gender, number, nominative, genitive, dative, accusative and ablative
- ☐ be able to read the sentences in chapter 2 along with any I give you using class material
- ☐ pronounce all words learned so far correctly, and be able to read short sentences fluently