

Learning Expectations Feb. 27-March 3

- Learn fourth declension forms and identify them in readings
- continue to develop reading ability with sight readings, work on the connected Perseus reading, and work on Sententiae Antiquae and short passages in Wheelock
- review perfect passives; become fluent in reading passives of all tenses in all conjugations
- learn 3rd and 4th principle parts of all verbs learned so far
- learn vocabulary of chapters 19, 20 and 21
- learn uses of ablatives reviewed in Wheelock 20
- begin learning scansion; master defining long and short syllables (in prose and in poetry)
- review and relearn forms of hic, haec, hoc

Homework and Quiz Assignments:

Wednesday:

- Homework: recognizing and translating perfect passives

Friday:

- Quiz: Verb synopsis, active and passive
- Homework: Translate progressive reading of Cicero Urges Catiline's Departure From Rome (chapter 20)