

Latin 102: Perfect passives

Translate the following sentences and for each verb, give the full dictionary form.

In this little story, our heroine finds happiness in the land of talking dogs. Some vocabulary: canis, canis m/f = dog; loquēns, loquentis = talking; felēs, felicis m/f = cat; saltāns, saltantibus = dancing; ferox, ferōcīs = ferocious.

1. subito ā canibus loquentibus capta sum.

2. prior ā felicibus saltantibus capta eram.

3. sed ā felicibus relictā eram.

4. eō tempore dīxī, “sī ad terram canum adducta erō, misera erō!”

5. “cūr ā parentibus meīs āmissa sum?”

6. “cūr ab eīs neglecta sum?”

7. “cūr ā deīs nōn liberāta sum?”

8. “sī ā canibus ferōcībus interfecta erō, beata erō!”

9. nunc tamen ā canibus dīlēcta sum.

10. in currū trāns agrīs pulchrīs ab eīs tracta sum.

11. nunc beata facta sum!

12. canēs ā mē amātī sunt.

Verbs:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

11. _____

12. _____