

caedo caedere cecidi caesum (1) [to cut]. (2) [to beat , knock about]. (3) [to kill, slay].

committo -mittere -misi -misum (1) [to unite , connect, combine]; esp. [to bring together in a contest, to match]: hence [to compare]. (2) [to begin, set on foot, initiate]: with ut and the subj., [to bring it about that]; esp. of crimes, etc., [to commit, perpetrate], and of penalties, [to incur]. (3) [to entrust, commit], esp. with reflex. N. partic. as subst. commissum -i, [an undertaking; a crime, fault; a trust, secret].

confligo -fligare -flixi -flictum transit. , [to strike or throw together; to bring together in order to compare]; intransit., [to collide, clash, come into conflict].

impetus -us m. [an attack , onset; any rapid motion; mental impulse, passion, force].

interimo -imere -emi -emptum [to take away , destroy, make an end of; to put out of the way, kill].

occurro -currere -curri -cursum [to run to meet; to fall upon , attack; to work against, oppose, counteract]; of things, [to crop up, occur, come to mind].

proelium -i n. [battle , fight, strife].saucio vulnus (volnus) -eris n. [a wound , injury].vulnero amnis -is m. [a stream , river, torrent]; poet., [current, river water].

dedo dedere -didi -ditum [to give up , surrender] esp. of the conquered. Transf., [to give up to, dedicate, devote]. Hence partic. deditus -a -um, [devoted to, addicted to]; 'dedita opera', [intentionally].

inde [thence , from there]; 'hinc....inde', [on this side....on that]; [from that cause, for that reason; from that time, thereafter; thereupon, then].

aliter. (1) [otherwise, in another way]; 'alius aliter', [in different ways]. (2) [else, in other conditions].

calidus (caldus) -a -um [warm , hot; fiery, passionate]. F. sing. as subst., calida (calda) -ae, [warm water]; n. sing. calidum -i, [warm wine and water].

review

vinco

invenio

abeo