

Latin 201
Homework due 10/16/08

I. In the following brief sentences, some verbs are jussive subjunctives, and some are indicative. Translate each verb with an appropriate meaning. (Use “let...” or another kind of command for the subjunctives) Step 1: what conjugation is the verb? Step 2: What vowel does that conjugation use for the subjunctive? Step 3: what person and number is the verb?

1. cum amīcīs vivant. _____

2. hodiē dormiunt. _____

3. hostēs fugiāmus. _____

4. omnia nārret. _____

5. bene dormiant. _____

6. senēs invideant. _____

7. multa basia mihi dās. _____

8. puella bona sis. _____

9. manē egrediamur. _____

10. nihil pollicetur. _____

II. Translate the following sentences taken from Latin authors. They are taken from Wheelock p. 191, so you should consult that page where there is some additional vocabulary and notes, and all the vocabulary should be in the Wheelock vocabulary. Look for present subjunctives.

1. ratiō dūcat, nōn fortūna. (Livy)

2. arma togae cēdant. (Cicero)

3. rapiāmus, amīcī, occāsiōnem dē diē. (Horace)

4. quī beneficium dedit, taceat; nārret quī accēpit. (Seneca)

5. dē mortuīs nihil nisi bonum dīcāmus. (Diogenes Laertius)

6. parēns ipse nec habeat vitia nec toleret.

7. fēminae ad lūdōs semper veniunt ut videant – et ut ipsae videantur.
