

Latin 201

Homework Due 9/8/2011

Forming Imperfect subjunctives

In the right column are imperfect indicatives. In the left column, put the equivalent form of the imperfect subjunctive. (vocabulary from chapters 28-29)

Imperfect Indicative	Imperfect subjunctive
ex. cedēbant	cederent
1. explēbāmus
2. praestābam
3. tacēbās
4. dēdicātis
5. condēbat
6. respondēbant
7. molliēbam
8. pugnābant
9. surgēbam
10. dīcēbāmus

II. Purpose and Result clauses

Translate the following sentences (all past tense with imperfect subjunctives). Be careful about which are purpose clauses and which are result clauses.

1. ad templum vēnimus ut dona deīs dēdicārēmus.

2. militēs tacuērunt nē hostēs eōs invenīrent.

3. militēs ita tacuērunt ut hostēs eōs nōn invenīrent.

4. cotidiē versūs scribēbam ut poeta bonus essem.

5. tantōs versūs scribēbam ut poeta bonus essem.

6. surrēxi fugīque nē leō fērox mē caperet.

7. tam celeriter cucurrī ut leō fērox mē nōn caperet.

8. militēs celeriter contendērunt ut hostēs tam primum pugnārent. (tam primum = as soon as possible)

9. militēs tam celeriter contendērunt ut contrā hostēs bene pugnārent.

10. dēnique puerī surrēxērunt ut domum ambulārent.
