

Verb Analysis Give the person, number, tense, voice and mood of the underlined verbs.

Spartacus servīs dixit, “bellum in dominōs nōbīs inferendum est. numquam liberī erimus, numquam tūtī; numquam dignitātem habēbimus.” eōs rogāvit uter servī esse eis placēret, an hominēs; tum demum servīs urgēbat ut repente dominōs interficerent. in diēs manus servōrum saevior crēvit; trāditur illōs multa facina atrōcia fecisse. exercitus Rōmānus ad servōs subigendōs statim profectus est; cum servī subactī essent, ultiōnem saevissimam passī sunt.

Word	person/ number	tense	voice	mood
1. dīxit	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative
2. erimus	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative
3. esse	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative
4. placēret	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative
5. trāditur	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative
6. fecisse	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative
7. subactī essent	1 st 2 nd 3 rd s. pl. NA	present perfect imperfect pluperfect future future perfect	active passive	indicative subjunctive infinitive imperative