

Psy 220
Exam 4 Study Guide
Spring 2010

You are responsible for all material presented in class since the last exam. I have indicated below the sections in the textbook that were NOT covered in class and for which you are responsible. Focus on the key (bold) terms presented and the main points of each section. The questions on textbook material will focus on broad themes or findings and key terms rather than very specific details. No more than 20% of the exam questions will cover material from the textbook. If a section of the textbook is not listed below, you are NOT responsible for it.

Chapter 12

Socioeconomic Influences on Parenting (465-466)
Mothers, Fathers, and Siblings (468-471)

Chapter 13
