

Lxxx Bxxxxxxx

1600 Sxxxxxxxx Dxxxx #16 • Wilmington, NC 28403 • (910) xxx-xxxx • lxxx.bxxxxxxx95@gmail.com

EDUCATION

University of North Carolina Wilmington
Bachelor of Arts Communication Studies, Minor Pre-Law
Dean's List (Semester, year), GPA 3.37

May 2016

SUMMARY OF SKILLS

- 8 years experience with Sampson County Teen Court (lead trainer of new volunteer, head attorney, judge, jury member, clerk of court, bailiff)
- Excellent public speaking, negotiation and performance skills
- 2 years experience using research databases (ProQuest and Lexis/Nexis)
- 3 years experience using Google Drive; Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and OneNote 2013; Windows 10, 8, 7, Vista and XP

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Writing as Strategic Communication

Semester, year

Learned variety of public relations, advertising, and organizational writing methods to strategically communicate messages to the general public and specific target audiences. Experience in writing news releases, public service announcements, brochures, advertising copy, proposals, and newsletters.

Communicating Culture

Semester, year

Adapted real-life stories into interactive performances for audiences outside the university classroom. Developed skills in interviewing, observation, and analysis in order to develop scripts and performances.

Legal Philosophy and Jurisprudence

Semester, year

Learned the nature, concept and sources of law and the various schools of jurisprudence. Topics treated include natural law; historical, analytical and sociological jurisprudence; idealism; utilitarianism; legal realism; equity, justice, precedent, custom and law; and the relation of law and morality.

American Constitutional Law 1

Semester, year

Studied U.S. Supreme Court decisions affecting separation of powers and individual rights; the powers of the judicial, executive, and legislative branches of national government; the relationships among these branches; and the federal system.

American Constitutional Law 2

Semester, year

Studied U.S. Supreme Court decisions affecting separation of powers and individual rights—individual rights and liberties other than procedural rights of persons involved with the criminal justice system.

WORK HISTORY

Old Navy
Sales Associate
Camp Dixie
Summer Staff

June 2014 – present

May 2012 – June 2015